PUBLICANS

AN OPPORTUNITY TO VOTE FOR CANDIDATES WIG. IF ELECTED, WOULD PAVOR A SOUND

MONEY SUCCESSOR TO SENATOR MURPHY. The present Assembly is almost evenly divided between the two parties, but the election to-morrow will offer a chance to give the Republicans an overwhelming control. to the presence of Citizens Union candidates in the field last November a number of districts here and in Brooklyn were lost to the party. Now, however, the friends of good government are united, and the time is ripe for sending a numerous delegation from the city to Albany. The Legislature to be chosen will, in addition to important duties on State affairs, have the election of a United States Senator. Edward Murphy, jr., is a candidate for re-election. He is a sliver man. His record is indisputable.

JUDAH LEWIS WEINBERG. Republican nomines in the IVth Assembly District.

Every vote for a Republican Assembly candidate will therefore be a vote for a sound-money

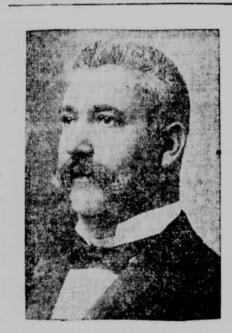

United States Senator. On Saturday The Tribune published short biographical sketches of some of the Republican nominees for the Assembly, with their portraits, A further instalment is presented herewith: Judah Lewis Weinberg, in the IVth District, has for his opponent Patrick H. Roche, who has Republican nominee in the Vth Assembly District.

had a typical Tammany experience at Albany. Mr. Weinberg is a graduate of Columbia College and the Columbia Law School. He has been an energetic Republican, and would make a far better Assemblyman than "Pat" Roche. Dr. Nelson H. Henry is conducting a particularly aggressive campaign in the Vth District. and has the support of all the independent elements. He served on the staff of Major-General C. F. Roe at Camp Black, and later was

RICHARD COHN. Republican nominee in the VIth Assembly District.

MEN FOR THE ASSEMBLY, Democrat until recently, but stands squarely on the Republican platform now. Last year he was active in his support of Seth Low. He GOOD NOMINATIONS MADE BY THE RE- favors ample parks for the poor, abundant school facilities and non-sectarian hospitals.

Republican nominee in the XIth Assembly District,

His opponent is Timothy P. Sullivan, nephew of Senator "Dry Dollar" Sullivan, whose record at Albany has been especially bad.

Hieronymus Breunich, Republican nominee in the Xth District, is twenty-five years old. He was educated in the public schools of this city. and also attended the College of the City of New-York. After a two years' course in the

PETER F. GLEASON Republican candidate, XIIIth Assembly District.

Law School of the University of the City of New-York, he received the degree of Bachelor of Laws. He was employed in the law firm of Holls, Wagner & Burghard, No. 120 Broadway. He was admitted to the bar February 16, 1897, and has a growing practice. He enjoys a wide circle of friends and acquaintances. He is the son of Henry Breunich, a coal merchant.

Michael Brady, in the XIth District, is popular on account of his record in the Fire Department. He won the Bennett medal for bravery and was retired in 1893 on account of injuries received in the line of his duty. The district is over on the West Side, below Thirty-eighth-st. Mr. Brady has been a Republican worker for some time.

Peter F. Gleason is the nominee in the XIIIth District, his rival being a Tammany office-

GUSTAV J. VOSS. Republican nominee in the XIVth Assembly Dis-

holder named Patrick F. Trainor. Mr. Gleason is an energetic campaigner and knows well the region in which he is making his race. His business is that of advertising agent.

Gustav J. Voss, who is making the race in the XIVth District, was a clerk in the Sheriff's office under Sheriff Tamsen. He is a lawyer, a gradu-goes to press December 1st. To obtain the advantage of listing in this issue it will be necessary to make contracts during the present month.

Directory

NEW YORK TELEPHONE CO. 18 Cortlandt, 15 Dec. 802 Broadway, 115 W. 38th

years at the University Law School he took first prize. A year ago he was admitted to the bar. Thomas E. Farrell's candidacy in the XVIIth

JONAS EHRENTREU Republican nomince in the XVIth Assembly Dis-

District appeals directly to the laboring men. He knows their needs and rights, and if elected would stand as their special representative at Albany. He has been a Deputy Collector of In-

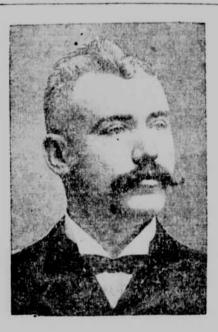

THOMAS E. FARRELL. Republican candidate in the XVIIth Assembly Dis-

FRANK BULKLEY. Republican candidate, XXIXth Assembly District.

acquaintance among politicians and business was not elected. He expects to have better luck this year, for he is making a strong canvass and hes a united party at his back. Beyond the Harlem, in the XXXIVth District, support of many former Tammany men who, under Henry D. Purroy and Charles L. Guy, for-sook the Wigwam. He is now in the decorative business, having formerly been a foreman in the Republican candidate in the XXXIVth Assembly

Department of Public Works in the administra-tion of Mayor Strong. He is a member of the Republican County Committee. A Tammany victory, and the city will be open wider than now

WELL KNOWN IN FRATERNAL WORK.

JOHN MULLIGAN, A WESTCHESTER CANDIDATE FOR THE ASSEMBLY.

was of Scotch-Irish ancestry, and came to this current in 1872 and opened a school in New-York He carried out every duty that His citizenship in City for the study of English and the classics. In 1837 he married Miss Jane Wilson, and on August 29, 1846, at No. 26 Howard-st., New-York, the nominee was born.

of New-York, and, after being graduated, entered the employ of Thomas Richardson & Co., one of the largest foreign shipping and commission houses of the day. He remained there until its dissolution, a period of thirty years, after which he accepted the place of supervisor of the death-claim depart-ment of the Mutual Reserve Fund Life Association and other places of trust with the same com-pany, and resigned in 1955 to accept the office of Supreme Dictator of the Knights of Honor. At present he is Grand Reporter of the Knights of Honor of the State of New-York, and lives in Yonkers.

Republican candidate for Assembly, Ist District,

At present he la Grand Reporter, and lives in of Honor of the State of New-York, and lives in public affairs.

In the XXIXth District the candidate, Frank Buikley, is a well-known contractor. Mayor Strong appointed him one of the commissioners to raise the tracks of the New-York Central Railroad in upper Park-ave. He has a large Railroad in upper Park-ave. He has a large of the State of Honor, New-York City as sembly No. 53, Royal Society of Good Fellows, and New-York City Ray and Society of Good Fellows, and New-York Lodge No. 156, and A. M.; Crescent Chapter No. 400, R. A. A. Crescent Chapter No. 400, R. A. A. Crescent Chapter No. 400, R. A. A. M.; a thirty-second-degree member of the Ancient Accepted No. 756, F. and A. M.; Crescent Chapter No. 400, R. A. A. Crescent Chapter No. 400, R. A. A. R. Crescent Chapter No. 400, R. A. A. M.; a thirty-second-degree member of the Ancient Accepted No. 756, F. and A. M.; Crescent Chapter No. 400, R. A. A. M.; a thirty-second-degree member of the Ancient Accepted No. 756, F. and A. M.; Crescent Chapter No. 500, Moretra, at one of the Board of Governors of the City Club of Yonkers. He is also deep rise that be but in a republic, where every man is a prince in his own right, it is for us to feel our-selved in his own right, it is for us to feel our-selved in his own right, it is for us to feel our-selved in his own right, it is for us to feel our-selved in his own right, it is for us to feel our-selved in his own right, it is for us to feel our-selved in his own right, it is for us to feel our-selved in his own right, it is for us to feel our-selved in his own right, it is for us to feel our-selved in his own right, it is for us to feel our-selved in his own right, it is for us to feel our-selved in his own right, it is for us to feel our-selved in his own right, it is for us to feel our-selved in his own right, it is for the remainded to fit he public duty.

There are three thints of the public duty.

There are three thints of the public duty.

There are three that lower h are united on Michael E. Driscoll for member of Congress. He should have a rousing

WESTCHESTER FULL OF CONFIDENCE. REPUBLICANS EXPECT TO CARRY THE COUNTY

BY MORE THAN 1,500.

The political campaign this fall in Westchester County has been satisfactory to Republicans, in the fact that, while the party in the county and Congress district for several years has been torn asunder by a flerce factional contest, both wings recognizing the vital questions involved in th present canvass, have come together and worked 'n harmony to elect the entire Republican ticket.

The nomination of Colonel Roosevelt was received with enthusiasm throughout Westchester. He was carry the entire Republican ticket through to victory, and the care exercised in the selection of local candidates seems to insure a Republican triumph such as has seldom been known in old Westchester. Cornelius J. Reilly made the race for the As-sembly in the XXXIIId District last year, but Richard Croker, often against the urgent protests of local Democratic leaders and the wishes of a majority of the delegates to the nominating conventions. Abject subserviency to Tammany Hall Croker's representative had only to hold up his were carried out.

To the rank and file of the Democracy this mode of procedure has been distasteful. While they fear Croker, they do not like him, and his interference in the local political affairs of the county will probably meet a stinging rebuke on Election Day.

Senator J. Irving Burns has made a fine canvass for Congress. His opponent, J. Q. Underhill, a Democrat, who voted for McKinley for President, has been busy evading questions as to how he stands on the aliver question to-day, and has neither the confidence of the gold Democrats nor the sympathy of the Bryan silver men. Senator Burns has won the confidence and esseem of the labor associations, the firemen, policemen and other bodies of voters in the XVIth Congress District, and that leads his friends to believe that he will be able to overcome the normal Democratic majority of the district, which includes the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth wards of New-York City, besides Westenster County.

W. & J. Sloane

Are now showing a great variety of choice

Foreign and American WILTON CARPETINGS,

in designs and colorings prepared under their direction, to suit the highclass decorations and furnishings of the several important periods.

Broadway & 19th Street.

PLAIN DUTIES AT THE POLLS.

TO-MORROW'S ISSUE PUT CLEARLY BY THE REV. DR. BURRELL.

VOTERS, HE SAYS, HAVE TO DETERMINE WHETEER THEIR RULERS SHALL BE THE CO-

POR TEMPERANCE, OR HONEST MEN.

The Rev. Dr. David J. Burrell preached in the Marble Collegiate Church, Twenty-ninth-st, and Fifth-ave, yesterday morning, on "The Citizenship of the Christian." Dr. Furrell took as his text Pilate's question to Christ, "Art thou a king, then?" For the reason that Christ was the Son of God. sembly from the 1st District of Westelester County, is the son of Professor John Mullican, who He was interested a politics. He advised his dis-fairs of civil life. I am not particular that the name of God shall be in the Constitution, but I am in earnest that the fear of God and His power shall be manifested in the hearts of our mogle-trates and people. How are we to bring the lines of our government into touch and coincidence with God's laws unless we are interested in civil affairs and east the weight of our votes and influence to bring them so?

"To-night there is to be a political meeting in a theatre within a stone's throw of this church. From that meeting will go forth a certain influence, perhaps. To-night the dive-keepers will crowd there to influence as much as they can the coming election. Are we to stand aside and see public opinion manufactured in such places? Are we to let the dramshops be the centres of political influence, when we know the dramshops are the centres of vile politics? It is for God's people to lams Post No. 394, Commander Joseph B. Lord, on influence with their tremendous power the current Saturday evening. He was accompanied by Commissional Communication of the communication of going forth from houses of God and the homes of godly people. At Lexington the cry of the patriot leaders to the people as they gathered to esist the British was, 'Haven't you any arms? Go to the meeting-house and there you will get The fire-buckets and the arms for the common defence were kept in the meeting-houses in mon defence were kept in the meeting-houses in those days, and there are weapons for civic defence in the meeting-houses now.

"Christ told His followers to yield obedience to the powers that be. It is therefore for us to be in accord with the government, and in perfect sympathy with its every righteous endeavor. We hear of the divine right of kinas, and it moves us when we see Englishmen doff their hats to the music of God Save the Queen, it moves us to see the German neople so intensely loyal to a half-demented war lord, and it thrills us when we see the loving devetion of the Dutch to their little Queen. But there is just as much in the divine right of governors of States, and in the divine right of megistrates in our courts. It is all right to criticise the acts of our officials, but let us do it with a revereice for the institutions of our Government. Further still, as followers of Christ and as good cilizens we are to co-operate with the Government. It is not enough to be subject to the powers that be, but in a republic, where every man is a prince in his own right, it is for us to feel our selves a part of that government and do our share of the public duty.

"There are three chings that I shall particularize the selves a part of the selection."

MORAL QUESTIONS IN THE CAMPAIGN. DR. MACARTHUR PLEADS FOR A VOTE AGAINST BOSSISM, AND FOR A PURE JUDICIARY, OBEDIENCE TO THE LAW AND HONEST MONEY.

"The Moral Elements in Tuesday's Election" was the subject of the sermon preached by the Rev. Dr. Robert S. MacArthur in Calvary Baptist Church last night. He said in part:

"Many moral elements enter into the present political campaign, and this fact justifies allusion to the subject from the pulpit. Mere partylsm is not a fitting subject for the pulpit, but true American patriotism may always be fittingly the subject of discussion there. In its place and for its purpose the ballot-box is just as sacred as the communion table in its place and for its purpose. "One of the questions involved in this campaign is the purity of the judiciary. The man who tamis the purity of the judiciary. The man who tampers with the courts strikes a blow at the foundation of liberty and humanity. If the courts are impure there can be no hope of justice for the poor or liberty in the Republic. It is astounding that any man claiming to be an American at the close of the nineteenth century should attempt to control the nomination of judges. Wonderful is the brutal frankness of the man who states as the reason for his rejection of an upright judge the fact that he refused to serve his pelitical organization. We have in this city a man who, although he holds no office, exercises a power equal to that of the Czar of Russia. The people should specify put this man from off his throne.

"Another moral insue is the preservation of law and order. It is amazing that a man who was a Governor of this State and who was a United States Senator should virtually counsel his heaters to become violators of the law. Such a man should be rebusked sharply by the voters of the State.

"The third moral question relates to money. This is a question of the streatest magnitude. It is most amixing that candidates for the National Legislature should evade giving their ideas on this subject. Can they be both honest and intelligent men? It is often the case that American give more thought to party than to Nation. But let us rise his time and stand for financial integrity and National honor." pers with the courts strikes a blow at the founda-

NEED OF GOOD CIVIL OFFICERS. The Rev. Dr. David G. Wylle preached yesterday

a sermon on the "Cheice of Civil Officers" in the Scotch Presbyterian Church, Ninety-sixth-st, and Central Park West, taking for his text Exodus xviii, 21. He spoke in part us follows:

central Park West, taking for his text Exodus xviii, 21. He spoke in part as follows:

We need good men in office to protect our rights. We entrust to our civil officers power. They have to do with property, education, the care of the poor, the welfare of the family. How great the responsibility to make choice of good men! Besides, only a pure government can endure. Men that are corrupt, dishonest, selfich, unpatriotic become insolicit and coase to care for the highest interests of the State. When this condition of affairs exists there is grave danger threatening our civilization. May God give us wisdom to select men who will be good legislators, upright judges and fearless executors of law; men whose highest imbition will be to do right and advance the interests of city. State and Nation!

They should also be fearless in the performance of the right. Men in public position are called to pass through times of great temptation; to vote for hills which often serfoundy effect the State and Nation. When such times come they should consult their consciences and do what they feel is for the best interests of the Commonwealth and Nation. We have some such men in office, but we need more of them. And the men who in the past have fearlessly dene their duty should be carried into office next Tuesday on the highest crest of the wave of public opinion.

But what do we see in New-York to-day? Why, an attempt to raise the dead. They ask us to vote for ghosts, for memories, for the dead. As a young man, I say 'No, thank you; let the dead bury their dead."

Mr. Dixon eulogized Colonel Roosevelt as a young man full of the spirit of veuch, as an American with broad American sympathics, and as a man who combined intelligence with practical knowledge.

edge
'If Croker carries the State," added Mr. Dixon,
'he will be the next United States Senator, and when he wiltes a fetter in the Senate Chamber he will have to hire a man to sell for him."

GRAND ARMY BUGLE NOTES.

Farnsworth Post No. 179, Mount Vernon, was officially inspected on Friday night by Post Com-mander Henderson of Kitching Fost, of Yonkers, who was accompanied by a lerge staff from his post. Past Department Commander John C. Schotts and Fast Department Quartermaster E. C. Mitchell, Past Commanders William Wilson, Jr., D. W. Lapham and Henry E. Rubades, Commander David C Curtis, Senior Vice-Commander Mei-ville Kelsey, Quartermaster Nathan Von House, Adjutant William P Sleight and Chaplain W A, Armstrong were also present. A campile followed the inspection, at which addresses were made.

Encampment No. 78, Union Veteran Legion, will hold a camplife at headquarters, No. 8 Union Square, on the evening of Wednesday, December 7. H. A. Weeks has extended invitations to all veteran soldiers and sailors and marines eligible all veteran solders and sailors and matines eligible to membership in the order to attend the meeting. He writes: "To all those who have been comtades of the encamement, and have, through stress of circumstances, been compelled to sever their membership, a fraternal greeting is offered. They are urged to attend and be placed in good standing once more. A supper will be served, and a large attendance is expected."

Sentor Vice District Commander Chappell paid an official visit to Robert Anderson and A. S. Will-lams Post No. 394, Commander Joseph B. Lord, on of political affairs of our civil life if it is to be what God wants it to be.

While these thinks are going on in vaudeville thearres and in dramshops to-day, it is for us to see that the heat influences we are capable of are going forth from houses of God and the homes of godly people. At Lexington the cry of the patriot leaders to the people as they gathered to Joseph K. Mertz, Assistant Adjutant-General of the Department of Minnesota, who died at Minneapolis last week, was one of the most popular men apolis last week, was one of the most popular men of his department, and had a wide circle of friends throughout the country. He served with distinc-tion during the War of the Rebellion, and was an active Grand Army man since the order was founded. He was lifty-four years old, had always been in robust health, and the news of his sudden death came as a great surprise to his friends.

CABINET CRISIS IN NEWFOUNDLAND.

THE MINISTER OF FINANCE RESIGNS AT THE DEMAND OF THE GOVERNOR.

St. John's, N. F., Nov. 6.-There is a serious Cabinet crisis in Newfoundland. Sir Herbert Murray, the Governor, demands the resignation of Mr. Morine, Minister of Finance. The ostensible rea-Morine, Minister of Phiance, son is that Mr. Morine is the general counsel of Mr. Reld, the railway contractor, but the real cause is the continued friction between Governor

Murray and the Minister.

Mr. Morine, in tendering his resignation, points ut that Sir William Whiteway, a former Premier, and Messrs. Emerson and Morris, members of the late Cabinet, held a similar relation to the con tractor, and that Sir Herbert Murray acquiesced in the arrangement in all three cases. He reminds the Governor, also, that he has been aware since April last of his (Morino's) relation to Mr. Reid, and insists that the Governor's omission to interfere before stamps his action now as personal and vindigities.

vindictive.

It is feared that complications will arise, wrecking the Cabinet and seriously prejudicing the negotiations regarding the French Shore, aiready under way before the conference for the settlement of disputes between the United States and Canada.

PRODUCE DEALERS AND THE WAR TAX. Washington, Nov. 6.-The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in reply to inquiries from members of the Chicago Hoard of Trade, with respect to the liability of dealers in produce, etc., holds as fol-

That in case of a broker who is a member of the Hoard of Trade negotiating a sale of grain or produce on the Exchange as a broker for a principal, the principal always assuming the trade, the broker is required to deliver and pay a ten-cent stamp on his note or memorandum of sale, and the principal is required to pay tax on the sale at the principal is required to pay tax on the sale at the rate of one cent on each $100 of the amount or fractional part of $100 in excess of $100. When a member of the Board of Trade, not a broker or not acting as a broker, makes a sale of grain or produce on his own account, and said sale is afterward assumed by a commission merchant for account of the seller, but one sale has occurred, and the commission merchant is the only person required to pay tax on this transaction, which is at the rate provided for in the second paragraph of the rate provided for in the second paragraph of Schedule A. NEGRO LYNCHED IN ALABAMA.

Selma, Ala., Nov. 6.-News of a lynching in Antanaga County reached here yesterday. Mrs. Suid-ler, while of a merchant and justice of the peace at Jones Switch, while making ready to retire, dis-Jones Switch, while making ready to refire, discovered a negro under her bed. When she screamed for help the man sprang for the deer and made his escape, leaving behind a strip of bar iron. John Williams, a nearce sectionhand, living near by was suspected and placed under arrest. Constable Queen started to Prattville with him and when about a mile from Jones Switch was me' by a crowd, who took the negro and hanged him to a tree. The negro admitted that the iron bar and some clothing found in Mrs. Stridler's room were his property.

A LEGISLATOR SENTENCED FOR THEFT. Milwaukee, Nov. 6 -A dispatch from Washburn. Wis., says that King G. Staples, a member of the Legislature, was sentenced yesterday by Judge Fish to eighteen months in the penitentiary for embezzlement from the town of Iron River while chairman of the Board there.

INCORPORATED AT ALBANY.

Albany, Nov. 6 - These stock companies have been incorporated with the Secretary of State. Phoentx Neckwear Company of New-York City; capital stock, $12,000. Directors, Joel M. Mark, Germain Mark and Edwin M. Lasker.

ENGLISHMEN NOT WANTED IN CHINA.

Defender Photo Paper, of Rochester, to manufacture photographic supplies, capital stock, $5.00. Directors, Frank Wilmot, Frederick W. Kramer and Martin B. Hoyt.

London correspondence of The Eirmingham Post.

I was told yesterday by one of the leaders of the Chinese reform party, who happens to be at this moment in England—and, by the way, he now thinks it wiser to remain here—that he has obtained a definite assurance that the Chinese official representatives in London have received peremptery and explicit instructions to suspend at once the negotiations to secure the services of certain Englishmen in the work of reorganizing the Chinese army and navy. Three captains who have recently retired from the British Navy were two months ago approached with a view to their entering the service of the Chinese Emperor, and there seemed every probability of their proceeding to Pekins. Two army officers and a naval constructor had had similar overtures, and it was also meditated to employ a number of men of lower rank. It is now believed, however, both at the Embassy—where a pro-British feeling prevails—and by the officers themselves, that their services will not be required. The Dowager Empress's animosity toward England, according to my informant, is partially due to her convirtion that the reform movement in China is attributable to the example of Great Britain in the matter of government. She hersel regards the Russian form of autocracy as the only one that can possibly suit China.